

All-Ireland win for Tuam Cyclists - Logstrup Tuam Cycling Club won their first ever All-Ireland under-age team championship at the All-Ireland finals which were also held for the first time in Tuam last weekend. Picture shows, left to right: Jack Watson (President, F.I.C.) presenting the All-Ireland medal to the winning team, Bobby Quinn, David Kelly and David Burke. Also in picture is Under-age Team Coach and Club Chairman, Seamus Quinn. The Tuam team's victory was secured by a one point margin over runners-up Youghal, Co. Cork. Blackwater, Co. Waterford were third. These finals were previously held at Mosney and the Tuam double - hosting and winning this All-Ireland event was a major contribution to the Tuam Festival.
